

Source of Being,
Whom I meet in what moves me,
I give Thee a Name so that I can give Thee a place in my life.
Bundle Thy light in me - put it to use.
Establish Thy Realm of Unity Now,
Then Thy only desire acts in unison with ours.
Feed us daily with bread and insight.
Unchain the snares of errors that bind us to the past,
So that we can forgive others their trespasses.
Do not allow us to be misled by the superficial.
From Thou springs forth:
The all-effective will
The living power to act
And the song that beautifies everything and rejuvenates from age to age.

Translated from Dutch by René Smits - original text by Bram Moerland who was inspired by the prayer in Aramese attributed to Jesus, known in the Christian tradition as the 'Our Father'.
Found in Happinez, no. 3-213; see: <http://www.happinez.nl>.
For Bram Moerland, see: <http://www.brammoerland.com>.